WIN THE FARMERS

HIGH PRICES OF PORK.

Montreal Star. Mr. John A. Gunn, of the firm of Gunn, Langlois & Co., of this city and vice-president of the packing firm of Gunn, Limited, of Toronto, when questioned by a representative of the Star as to the principal causes of the existing high prices of pork products.

"The lack of production is responsible. The farmers are not raising enough hogs to supply the increasing demand, and, as the prices of pork products go up.

"The farmers, then, are in no way responsible for the high prices."

"When the cost of hogs goes up, the packers, naturally, have to increase their prices to the dealer to even up. We are, however, taking no more net profit than we did years ago—in fact, not so much when everything is considered."

"Is there any combine of packers to your knowledge?" asked the reporter.

"Neither to my knowledge nor to anybody else's." The keen capitalist which exists among Canadian packers is a strong answer to this.

"Is there any agreement between them as to the prices to be paid by the farmer for the hogs?"

"Absolutely none. The competition in buying is as sharp as in selling."

"Do you buy directly from the farmer or through drovers, who have to get a commission on the sale?"

"Packers as a rule, employ their own salaried buyers, who are on the farmer's direct. There is no intermediate profit to be paid by the middleman."

"In your opinion, is the present state of the trade in healthy condition?"

"The production must be increased before this can be the case. The only hope of a reduction in present prices depends on the increase of production."

"Is there any evidence of this being done?"

"We are hopeful that by next fall better conditions will prevail. The farmer, I am convinced, will soon see the possibilities open to him in hog raising."

"The government realizes the importance of the question of encouraging the industry and last summer appointed a commission to visit England, Ireland and Denmark to study conditions in these countries, but as yet the report of the findings has not appeared."

"Certainly, the Canadian farmer should be urged to give more attention to the raising of hogs. It seems inconceivable that a little country like Denmark, which has to import the bulk of its requirements for feeding hogs—purchasing them, in fact, from this country and the United States—should be able to beat the world on the cheaper pork market."

"While the Canadian farmers cannot be brought to see their possibilities on their home markets which prices are higher than in the old country."

"The killing in Denmark averages 20,000 to 30,000 per week, whereas in Canada, where the conditions are much better than there, amounts to much less, the figures for the past three years being:

1907 ..... 25,000
1908 ..... 24,000
1909 ..... 15,000

"These figures show a steady decline in spite of the fact that we have all the elements and conditions for guarding feed to produce hogs at a handsome profit."

"What influence has the American market on ours?" asked the representative of the Star.

"Our imports of pork products from the States amount to over 1,000,000 lbs. especially in the winter months, and are cheaper to produce there than in Canada, but are coarser and heavier in quality. A large proportion of the pork used in lumber camps, on construction work, etc., comes from the United States. Our market is naturally affected by Chicago prices."

"Has speculation much effect on the price in Canada?"

"Little, if any. Canadian packers do a legitimate business and do not indulge in speculation as a general rule."

"The conditions which were exposed last year ago in Chicago do not exist in Canada."

"The consumer who buys Canadian pork is not aware of its excellent and healthy quality. The government employs inspectors who are located at the various packing concerns and insist on rigid sanitary conditions. In this respect, I am sure that the loss in rejected hogs is a big loss to the packers."

"In Denmark the government inspectors cause the hogs to encounter absolutely healthy conditions. This should be done here, too. The government should pay half or two-thirds of the cost in this regard."

"Mr. Gunn is of the opinion that the high cost of living is due to a great extent to the tendency of the present generation to live in a more extravagant manner than did the ancestors. The revenue of the average wage-earner is greater than a few years ago and the desire for luxuries has increased proportionately."

MONTREAL LIVESTOCK.

Montreal, Que., April 4.—About 1,300 head of butchers cattle, 500 calves, 175 sheep and lambs and 1,100 hogs were offered at Montreal stock yards today. Drovers were asking from 16 to 18 cents per pound more for prime cattle than such cattle brought two weeks ago.

"The demand for good lots is sold 6½ to 7½ cents per pound; common stock, 4½ to 5½ cents; calves, 40 to 50 cents per pound."

One buyer paid $24 for a choice calf, 100 lbs. of 60 to 65 per pound; lambs, 70 to 80; spring calves, 80 to 85 each; good lots of sheep, 10½ to 10½ cents per pound. Officers estimated 1,275 cattle, 1,275 calves, 175 sheep and lambs and 1,500 hogs.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKETS.

Chicago, Ill., April 4.—Kentucky corn rapidly hoisted for many years of its beautiful women and its thoroughbred horses, and its green region, as well as its bourbon whiskey, and apple jack has come in for a share of praise.

It has never been raised in praise of the agricultural bureau in the United States, which produces "colossal" by the thousands. They have maintained a course there such as it has been and the few reports sent from there have been accepted as "Never again," is now the word, and any report in addition of Kentucky crop is likely to be swallowed with more or less ease.

A statistician who does not know enough about making up a report to arrive at a conclusion of 10 per cent of an average crop of wheat when the figures should have been 34 ought to be relegated to a position behind the plow and made to remain there for a time to come.

The report was so far out of the way that some discredited it upon arrival, but it helped the market a little early, as scattered shorts became alarmed and covered in early advance. The correction, which came much later than the first move, and the report that a large cash corn house had applied for a receiver foundered and a general break in values. There were fractional losses about by wheat on day, May about ½ cent, July ½ cent and September ½ cent.

Corn-fractional losses were shown by coarse grains and the market was under considerable pressure. There was a slight showing of strength early, but this soon gave way to a decline.

An active house in the cash grain trade sent into the hands of a receiver and the whole of this was not known until late. It was felt in the trade. Heavy purchases of corn to arrive and a lack of demand were the causes of the receivership.

Outs were easier with other grains, although to a less degree. Liquidation was moderate and shorts were best buyers.

Provisions.—The strength in the provision market was brought about largely by the buying of the list by the Cudahy Packing Company, the concern that was prominent on the selling side last week. Scattered holders sold and secured profits.

The new uniforms for the city police have arrived, but despite the summer weather, the officers still are forced to wear their winter uniform gear.

Rev. R. E. Gordon, of Metropolitan Methodist Church, held his regular monthly meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. O. Tipton.

Mrs. W. R. George is able to be around again after his recent illness. T. F. Malone has received word from his mother of the serious illness of his father, who resides in that city. Mr. Malone's two brothers—E. H. Malone, Hamilton, Ontario, and M. J. Malone, Hamilton, Ontario—are on the way west on a visit to their father.

About fifty men, mostly foreigners, were shipped south by C. Bush yesterday for work on the Glasgow branch of the C.P.R. Up to date Mr. Bush has sent out about 200 men this season. About fifty more will be required during the present week.

SUNDAY MUST BE "DRY."
In New York.—Mayor Gaynor Outlines His Proposed Plan.

New York, April 4.—Mayor William Gaynor gave out tonight his proposed plan of action for making New York "dry" city on Sunday, and at the same time to eradicate the "existing cancer of corruption" by the police, which he characterized as far worse than Sunday selling. His suggestion was embodied in a letter to Wm. H. Baker, commissioner of police, in which the mayor denounces the extortion to which liquor dealers have voluntarily submitted. In short, he places the entire responsibility in the hands of the State police department and the district attorney's office. The police are practically forbidden to make arrests. His letter says, in part: "The only way to effectively enforce the laws is the way prescribed by law."

If public officials are suffered to go outside of the law and do as they like in the ostensible enforcement thereof, the inevitable result is corruption, and hence corruption of blackmail. As you know, I began in January by notifying the district associations of liquor dealers throughout the country, which contain about 6,000 members, that they had to cease collecting money from their members by means of so-called monthly dues averaging about $20 a month, and paying the same over to the persons of supposed influence and to police officials for protection, as it was called."

"I am informed that all of these associations have voted to discontinue such collections of money, and I believe they have done so. It is now time to enforce the law as well as, or even better, than it is enforced throughout the rest of the state."

Here the mayor, reciting a provision of the law prohibiting bar scenes, suggests his first remedy as follows: "Let every policeman inspect every bar-room from the outside continually during prohibited hours to see that this provision of the law is complied with to the letter. The captains and inspectors must also make a similar inspection, and see that the patronage do their duty. Let any neglect of duty on this head by patrolmen, captain, inspector or other be cause for dismissal."

"His Honor's next recommendation is in a nutshell to let the State police officers, separate and apart from the local police, obtain the necessary evidence which shall be submitted to the district attorney."

LOCALS.

A. K. Buckham has returned from a trip to Alibabab Landing. He was absent about two weeks.

The interest in the special services in the Baptist church continues. The regular weekly meeting of the Strathcona city council takes place this evening at eight o'clock. Principal McKee continues to improve from his attack of pneumonia and expects to be around again in a few days.

Work was commenced last week by Superintendent Turner, of the water works department, in laying water services into residences of the new town. It was found, however, that there was too much frost in the ground for the travelling streets and work was abandoned for some months.

The funeral took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of Mrs. E. G. Bondell, Fifth avenue north of Mrs. Levi Lochlin, aged 75 years.

Rev. J. M. Miller officiated, and the pallbearers were A. Davies, J. W. Blain, A. H. Richards, R. B. Douglas, A. Chapman and George Thompson.

Miss Grace McKernan has taken the position of stenographer with J. O. Tipton & Son, formerly occupied by Miss M. Elliott.
